Frank Hill

The keynote address for this year’s general session will be given by TCCTA attorney Frank Hill, who will address the topic, “Academic Freedom in a Dangerous World.”

Mr. Hill has been a featured speaker for many years at the annual TCCTA Fall Conference for Faculty Leaders, addressing educators on the rights and responsibilities of community college faculty. His appearance is invariably a highlight of the meeting.

Mr. Hill holds the Bachelor of Arts degree in English, with honors, from the University of Texas at Arlington. He received his law degree, also with honors, from Southern Methodist University. Founded in 1972, the firm of which he is the senior partner now includes 30 practicing attorneys, several of whom are recognized as specialists in legal matters involving the rights of teachers. Over the years, members facing difficult professional issues have come to know Mr. Hill as a trusted advisor. He and his firm have established a unique standard for handling sensitive legal matters with discretion, integrity, and fortitude.

Chair, Professional Development Committee

“Lessons that Last:
The Teachers Students Remember”

SPEAKER..... DAVID M. SHRIBMAN

The TCCTA Professional Development Committee, in cooperation with STARLINK, has arranged for an inspiring presentation devoted to teachers at all levels. The event will be broadcast live to campuses across the U.S. and Canada, at 1:00 p.m., Friday, February 20.

Speaking will be noted author and journalist David M. Shribman. His topic will be “Lessons that Last: The Teachers Students Remember.”

David M. Shribman is executive editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. He was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in journalism in 1995 for his coverage of Washington and the American political scene. His column, “National Perspective,” is syndicated to more than 50 newspapers nationally through Universal Press Service, and he is a contributing editor of Fortune magazine.

Mr. Shribman served for ten years as the Washington bureau chief of the Boston Globe, and also as national political correspondent for the Wall Street Journal. Prior to these positions, he covered Congress and national politics for the New York Times and was a member of the national staff of the Washington Star.

Mr. Shribman is a regular panelist on the PBS television show “Washington Week in Review,” a frequent analyst for BBC radio, and has appeared on the CBS program “Face the Nation.”

I Remember My Teacher, published in 2002, is Mr. Shribman’s collection of reminiscences about America’s greatest teachers. The book includes recollections of people from all walks of life—from Secretary of Defense Donald H. Rumsfeld to a West Virginia coal miner, from flight attendants to governors and senators.

The book was also featured recently on National Public Radio and favorably reviewed in several national publications.

“10 Things Faculty Can Do To Keep Students from Plagiarizing”
Peggy Whitley
Dean of Educational Services
Kingwood College

Either plagiarism is increasing or else we are just better equipped to catch it. Do your part to help students avoid the “Big P.” This session will provide ten helpful suggestions that faculty can use to prevent student plagiarism.

“GITT: Great Ideas For Teaching and Traveling”
Carrie Pritchett
Instructor of History
Northeast Texas Community College

This session will focus on the classroom dynamics of a travel-study class, teaching “on the road” using site visits as learning tools, and the grading system involved. The session will also discuss the logistics of planning a trip (funding, grants, transportation, etc.).

“Managing the Classroom” (Back By Popular Demand!)
Lola King
Professor of English
Trinity Valley Community College

Find out about strategies that instructors can use to deal with disruptions, in a quick, consistent, respectful way with clearly defined consequences. The session is designed to help create an environment in which students are free to learn—and teachers are free to teach.

“Turning Trash into Teaching Treasures”
Debbi Cook
Assistant Chair, Fine Arts Division
Blinn College

This assignment combines recycling with creative and critical thinking, cooperative learning, persuasive strategies, audience analysis, and presentation skills. Students also learn about societal issues involving the environment, aging, access to services, cultural biases, etc.—all from some household trash!

“The Magic of Math”

Jackie Johnston

Associate Faculty

Northeast Texas Community College

Using games and everyday items can make math more realistic and fun. The session will also incorporate strategies to decrease the level of anxiety in the classroom.

“Good-bye TASP...Hello TSI”

Gail Platt

Director of the Teaching and Learning Center,

Title III

South Plains College

A look at the new Texas Success Initiative (which is replacing the Texas Academic Skills Program). The session will include a brief overview of state policies, some sample institutional plans, and open discussion. Dr. Platt is co-chair of the Texas Success Initiative Advisory Committee of the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

“The First Class”

Doug Richey

Professor of Mathematics

Northeast Texas Community College

Do you miss the opportunity to make a good first impression? Many teachers lose potentially successful students because they fail to get the semester off to a good start. Come share with others about starting a class successfully and maintaining success for the rest of the semester.

“Connecting Students Online”

Lisa Volle McQueen

Instructor of Anthropology and Spanish

Central Texas College

This session provides an overview of how to combine traditional and online students for collaborative projects, how to foster ideas to engage students in course participation, and how to help retain students for the duration of the course. It combines ideas of collaboration and technology within the context of course content and offers attendees free tools to create such collaboration. Practical ways to monitor learning and evaluate outcomes will also be explored.

“Online Re-TEN-tion: A Prescription for Avoiding Curricularmortis”

Mark Butland

Associate Professor of Communication

Austin Community College

Lack of class killing you? Student status: dropping? Don't worry over rank retention! Enhance your distant-student standing (and add grade-A swagger) through the “Top 10 High-Class” strategies.

“Make It Sizzle, Make It Hot!
What Teaching Is—And What It’s Not!”
Deann Merchant
Professor of Psychology
Amarillo College

What is our role in the classroom? What does our role NOT include? Some candid interviews with award-winning instructors reveal some interesting answers! Attend this session and add your own answers to ongoing research!

“Cyberplagiarism 101: Deterrence and Detection”
Patricia Cearley
Professor of English and Technical Writing
South Plains College

With the proliferation of Web pages, students have found new ways to plagiarize. Sometimes these ways are so new that professors have difficulty proving it. This session will cover ways to deter and to detect student plagiarism by using Web resources.

“Test Taking Can Be Fun!?”
Sarah Keith
Director of Student Success Programs
Kilgore College

Most of today’s students are very comfortable with technology and find that using the CPS system helps relieve some of their test anxiety. This session will provide a brief demonstration of the CPS system along with some ideas for classroom applications.

Look for community and

Technology Semi-

Friday, February 20–2:30 to 5:15 p.m.

The Professional Development Committee of the Texas Community College Teachers Association will sponsor a number of seminars in conjunction with the 57th annual TCCTA convention. The ten seminars, which will cover many aspects of the use of new technology in the classroom, are designed to provide practical instruction on the latest teaching innovations. All seminars will be held at the Fort Worth Convention Center. No pre-registration is necessary, but seating may be limited.

“What’s New at WebCT?”

2:30-3:45—Room 203-C

Estelita Young of WebCT will present the newest developments in Campus Edition and Vista and provide information on the new PowerLinks program.

“Preview...Select...Publish”

2:30-3:45—Room 204-A

Patrick Boles and Don Golini of Pearson Custom Publishing will help you learn how to create a custom reader, anthology, lab manual, or casebook online. Attendees will be shown how to access Book-Build, a comprehensive database of content and to add personal material, request an examination copy, and receive an ISBN. Books will be published and shipped to the bookstore in time for classes.

“Using Digital Video Conferencing and Other Web-Based Technology to Enhance Online Learning”

2:30-3:45—Room 203-B

Learn from experienced classroom practitioners! Carol Barbay, associate professor of psychology at Lamar State College–Port Arthur and Irene Doo, adjunct instructor of mathematics at Austin Community College and Joliet (Illinois) Junior College, will present the latest techniques in online instruction.

“Effective Course Media”

2:30-3:45—Room 203-A

Dan Rinn of Prentice Hall will demonstrate new media-driven course materials to help you and your students efficiently and effectively reach your course goals.

“CourseCompass, TestGen and Research Navigator”

4:00-5:15—Room 203-C

Elizabeth Garza, Terry Harris, and Kristen Sommerfeld of the Addison Wesley Higher Education Group present exciting instructional instruments for online education, course management, testing, and research across all teaching disciplines.

“Portals to Today’s Students: Digital Natives and Digital Immigrants”

4:00-5:15—Room 203-B

Danita McAnally and Mark Hanna of Amarillo College explore the differences between digital “native” and digital “immigrant” students and the capabilities of portals in fulfilling expectations for information at any time and any place.

“Simplifying Classroom Chores Using Technology”

4:00-5:15—Room 204-A

Noted author and historian David M. Oshinsky and Laura Matysek Wood of Tarrant County College demonstrate how Thomson’s WebTutor course supplement can lessen faculty “paper overload” and allow more student interaction.

“Teaching Face-to-Face and Online with e-Learning Technology”

4:00-5:15—Room 204-B

Jim Riley of Palo Alto College, a veteran user of WebCT, will demonstrate how to use publisher-developed content to support your textbook, whether teaching online or face-to-face. South-Western’s WebTutor, Personal Trainer, and General Ledger products will be featured.

“Using Technology to Move into Leadership Roles”

4:00-5:15—Room 203-A

Join Bernadette Hence of Galveston College to learn how to use Web-based modules to assist current and aspiring administrative leaders with best practices in administering technical education with state-of-the-art technology.

“Plagiarism: Technology’s Response to a Growing Problem”

4:00-5:15—Room 201-C

Learn how Turnitin.com answers the needs of educators. Jeffrey Lorton will discuss how Turnitin.com supports educators as a teaching tool, and how the service works to help prevent and detect plagiarism. (TCCTA has arranged for special pricing consideration for all two-year colleges in Texas. Visit www.tccta.org for details)

SESSION TRACKS

Two of the most popular section meeting topics at this year's convention pertain to pedagogy and technology. These issues relate to virtually all disciplines and will be addressed from a wide variety of perspectives over the course of the three-day conference. Below is a list of programs, organized by topic.

When not attending scheduled events, members are encouraged to visit the convention exhibit hall. Exhibits include the latest in textbook offerings, educational software and hardware, as well as other products and services of value to educators.

Do you feel stressed at work? Stress is an unavoidable part of life, so you can be controlled by stress or learn how to control your stress. Come by and find ways to decrease your stress and start feeling better today! Presenter: Lynne Quillian, LVN, Hempstead ISD.

“Trekkling—The Next Generation of Exercise”

Beam up to better health with an overview of this 30-minute, self-paced, instructor-guided treadmill workout that you can modify to do on your own! Presenter: Julie Johnson, assistant professor of speech, and continuing education physical fitness instructor, South Plains College.

“Self Defense Made Simple!”

This presentation will teach several basic self-defense techniques that, with practice, will improve your safety and health. Presenter: James Richey, assistant professor of law enforcement technology, South Plains College.

“No More Cellulite!”

A proven 8-week program for a firmer, fitter body by Dr. Wayne Westcott and Rita La Rosa Loud will be discussed.

Presenter: Janna Holt-Day, assistant professor of speech, and continuing education physical fitness instructor, South Plains College.

Coordinator of the GIFF Sessions is Janna Holt-Day, South Plains College.

SECTION MEETING EVALUATION

As a part of its continuing effort to assure that convention section meetings are worthwhile for those attending, and because of its belief that the section meetings are the most important single element in our annual conventions, the Executive Committee requests each member to participate in an evaluation of section meetings attended. Some sections have developed their own forms for program evaluation. This form has been devised for use in evaluating programs for sections which do not have their own forms.

PLEASE PROVIDE YOUR CANDID OPINION REGARDING THE SECTION MEETING PROGRAM. The forms will be collected at the close of the meeting. (If you prefer, you may mail your evaluation form to the TCCTA State Office to be forwarded to the appropriate person.)
