

“The interaction and learning that occurs at these retreats offers faculty a meaningful respite from the ongoing demands of academic work, as well as a rich mine of ideas and inspiration.”

—Terry Stewart Mouchayleh,
Austin Community College

Come to the Great Teaching Round Up!

“One of the most respected professional development programs for Texas community college teachers” The Great Teaching Round Up, founded by Don Bass at College of the Mainland in 1982, is scheduled for May 23-26, 2011 at the YO Ranch Resort in Kerrville, Texas.

Expectation The Great Teaching Round Up differs from most conferences in that, for the most part, the program is created by the participants themselves. The staff’s major role is facilitation. The format varies but often includes: teaching clinics, panels, organized discussions, “hands on” workshops, and presentations by participants or Round Up staff. It also features choices among activities. The exchange takes place not only in scheduled sessions but also informally around the pool, in conversations at dinner, or on excursions around Kerrville.

Focus The goals of the seminar include: Sharing methods and techniques ... Celebrating good teaching ... Creative, realistic problem solving ... An exploration of new ideas ... Serious introspection and self-appraisal ... Professional and personal renewal.

Process Assemble a group of people who really care about teaching and place them in an isolated, unstructured setting in the beautiful Texas hill country. The rewards can be astounding: Over the years, many teachers have reported that the Round Up allowed them to believe in their chosen profession as never before.

Facilitators Tim Gill, Tyler Junior College; Helen Jackson, Houston Community College.; and Vickey Andrews, Del Mar College.

“This was an illuminating retreat.”

*“I am able to
...fill in my gaps
and
... feel more confident”*

*“Fabulous! Absolutely perfect—restful,
relaxing,
and renewing.”*
