

“Leading from the Middle”

Lakeway Conference Center
Austin, Texas
August 3-7, 2003

— SCHEDULE OF EVENTS —

Sunday, August 3

5:00 p.m. - Registration

6:00 p.m. - Reception and Dinner Cruise on Lake Travis

Monday, August 4

Morning Session: “Ethics in Leadership,” Bill Wenrich, Chancellor, Dallas County Community College District

Afternoon Session: “Leading With Emotional Intelligence,” (we’re looking at a couple of people to deal with leadership issues using Daniel Goleman’s Primal Leadership as a framework)

Tuesday, August 5

Morning Session: Continuation of Monday morning session (small group follow-up; people will be divided into groups of ten for discussions)

First Afternoon Session: “Best Use of Technology,” Judy Ashcroft, Associate Vice President, Division of Instructional Innovation and Assessment, University of Texas at Austin

Second Afternoon Session: “How Texas Works,” Patrick Frances, Higher Education Team Manager, Texas Legislative Budget Board

Wednesday, August 6

Morning Session: “How to Avoid a Lawsuit,” Frank W. Hill, Attorney at Law

Afternoon Session: “Nuts and Bolts: Managing Internal and External Constituents,” Steve Head, Executive Vice Chancellor, North Harris Montgomery Community College District, Bob Brown, Linda Coronado, and Angie Runnels

Thursday, August 7

Morning Session: “Vision: Possible?” Bill Wenrich and Patsy LeMaster, Director of Professional Development, Amarillo College -- a wrap-up of the conference